RE: Freedom of Information Act Request for Copies of the most recent Uniform Docketing Manual for the Executive Office for Immigration Review, and all Documents Which Govern How Immigration Cases are Assigned to Immigration Judges

Dear Ms. Eagly:

This letter is a response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request in which you seek copies of: 1) the most recent Uniform Docketing Manual for the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), and 2) all policies, procedures, or memos which govern how immigration cases are assigned to Immigration Judges.

Please be advised that item number one is publically available on the EOIR's website at: http://www.justice.gov/eoir/efoia/foiafreq.htm. Accordingly, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Section 552(a)(2), such records are not the proper subject of a FOIA request.

On or about February 21, 2014, you agreed to scope item number 2 of your FOIA request to documents that were in effect since January 1, 2007 to the present. Enclosed is a computer disk containing a copy of the documents responsive to your FOIA request. EOIR has redacted the information pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Section 552(b)(6) of the FOIA to avoid a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and 5 U.S.C. Section 552(b)(4) regarding commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential. To view the contents on the computer, you will need to use computer software such as Adobe Acrobat. There will be no charge for this information.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. Section 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. See http://www.justice.gov/oip/foiapost/2012foiapost9.html

If you are not satisfied with this decision, you may file an appeal by mail to: Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), U.S. Department of Justice, 1425 New York Ave., N.W., Suite 11050, Washington, D.C. 20530, or you may submit an appeal through the eFOIA portal at http://www.justice.gov/oip/efoia-portal.html. OIP must receive your appeal within 60 days of the date of this letter. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." The procedures for appeal are stated at 28 C.F.R. Section 16.9.

Sincerely,
