P: One day there was a málanga (?) ceremony at Mavueni loc, which I attended. At about 5:30 pm I was eating some food. Kanga s/o Kalume came and told me that my son was fighting with another man called Mahafodh (?). I went and found M holding my son's hat. I asked him why he was fighting my son, but he just passed me and went away. D was standing about a yard away and hit me on the right eye, which was seriously injured. I went to the sub-chief and reported the matter. He asked me to have the dispute settled out of court. D was called and asked to pay 24/- compensation. He admitted he assaulted me and agreed to pay in one week. But he never paid.
D: admits claim and agrees to pay
